ROCKS

MAY 16 - May borrowed some windy days from March weeks. It was cold and frosty a few mornings last week.

'A number from Rocks Extension Club attended the Health Forum meeting last Tuesday in Lynchburg.

Glad to hear Margaret Grishaw returned home from the hospital last Wednesday.

Raymond Moore, of Syracuse, N.Y., left last Sunday morning for Arizona after spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Moore of Pamplin.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Martin and boys took their last tobacco to sell last Tuesday in Maryland.

Harry Almond of Ranson's Nursing Home at Keysville, spent the week end here with Mr. and Mrs. Otis Ranson and other relatives.

Mrs. Margaret Marshall spent awhile Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Lockie Martin.

Rev. and Mrs. A. M. Taylor spent last week in South Carolina with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Taylor and grandson, Scottie, before leaving in June for Iceland.

We are happy to say Mrs. Louise Roach is now secretary and treasurer for the Appomattox Association.

The campers met down at Old Rocks Saturday evening for a picnic.

Paul Martin has the measles.

Congratulations to Patty Roach and Susan Morris who won blue ribbons in the 4-H Junior Demonstration contest at Appomattox Elementary School on April 23.

The ladies were busy freezing strawberries last week

Mrs. Betty Lorini, of Connecticut, spent a few days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Moore.

Congratulations to Ruby Hamilton, of Evergreen, who won the flower from Superior Trees Nursery for the birthday drawing on Monday.

A speedy recovery is wished Keith Harris who was rushed to the hospital Sunday night.

Mrs. Walter Ranson was in Pamplin Monday morning awhile.

Susan J. Lorini, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Moore has been named valedictorian of her high school class and is one of 121 graduating seniors to be a Presidential Scholar by President Carter. She will be brought to Washington, D.C., from June 6 to 9 to receive her Medallion. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Moore have been invited to attend the White House ceremony.

JACK TALE PLAYERS ENTERTAIN APS STUDENTS WITH FUN, FOLKLORE

Merriment and music echoed through Appomattox Primary School Thursday, May 12, as the Jack Tale Players from Ferrum College carried students, through the Blue Ridge Mountain folktales and make-believe. The players kept students clapping, laughing, and talking back with non-stop songs, dances, pantomine and storytelling.

A mountain music band with banjo, guitar, scrub boards, autoharps, and wash tubs greeted students as they filed into the media center to form a large circle on the floor. Dressed in blue jeans and bandana-print shirts, the players maintained interest and curiosity with continous "participation" techniques.

The play entitled "Jack Tales" was written by the drama students to illustrate the original folktales common to the Blue Ridge Mountain area.

The production was funded by the Gifted and Talented Program of Appomattox Primary School.

Surprise Birthday Party

After church services, Sunday night, May 15th, Mrs. Nellie Roach was surprised with a Brithday cake, ice cream and soft drinks, by the members of Bethel Bible Church. Mrs. Betty Fleshman and Mrs. Dave Grove, the social committee of the church, prepared and served this nice surprise. It was held in the home of the pastor, Dave Grove. There were 19 people present.

Candidate For Degree

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil J. Rowe attended the graduation exercises at Lynchburg College May 27th in which their daughter, Debra Joan, was a participant.

Debra is an August candidate for a B A degree in English Literature - Writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil J. Rowe, Jr. and family of Falls Church were also present at the graduation exercise at Lynchburg College in which a total of 470 undergraduates and graduates participated.

Attend Graduation

Among those attending the graduation exercise at Longwood College, Farmville, Va. on the morning of Saturday, May 14, 1977 were Earl Agee and sons, Eddie, Phillip, and Jeff; Mrs. Tilden Lee; Wayne Lee and daughters, Wendy and Dana.

Among those graduating was Mrs. Winifred Lee Agee who received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Elementary Education.
